- 1 The client shall designate one option by an "x".
- 2 The client shall designate one option by an "x". Unless the manner of signing the documents is indicated, the option of "individually" shall always apply.
- 3 In actual practice, banks require other personal data (date of birth, personal number, ID number, etc.) and the clients are obliged to express their consent with the provision, collection, and processing of the provided information pursuant to the act of the Czech Republic no. 101/2000 Coll., as amended (Personal Data Protection Act). Since they are fictitious entities established for the purposes of student practice companies, MUB Banks do not request, collect, or process such data. Therefore, the first name and last name of the authorised person with the fictitious account shall be sufficient.
- 4 Restrictions (limitations) shall apply to individual payment orders and cash withdrawals initiated by authorised persons.

Only persons stipulated above are authorized to dispose with fictitious funds in the MUB Account. Such persons may charge amounts to the MUB Account on behalf of the owner, dispose with the fictitious funds in the MUB Account pursuant to the conditions stipulated in the column "Limitations" and further confirm the details regarding fictitious payment orders to MUB Bank and verify fictitious balances on the MUB Account pursuant to the Business Terms for Establishing and Maintaining MUB Accounts.

I hereby confirm the validity of the stipulated statements and the signatures of the authorised persons. I hereby acknowledge that MUB Bank shall not be held liable for any damages arising from unauthorised completion of fictitious payment documents. In case of any changes regarding the stated information or authorised persons, new signature cards must be completed; new signature cards shall become effective on the next business day upon their delivery to MUB Bank.
